

SA disabled golf championships at Magalies

The South African Disabled Golf Championships took place at Magalies Park last week. Players from all over the world took part in the championship. Mike Brown was crowned champion after the four day tournament. Mike is a leg amputee and he represented England at the tournament.