The relationship between Zwartkop Country Club and the SADGA is something that we are very proud of. ABOUT ZWARTKOP

We present to you Zwartkop Country Club - a club that honours the tradition and history of the game of golf and a course which gives all golfers an unforgettable experience. Over the last few years the course has undergone extensive renovations and today boasts facilities to make your corporate golf day or social round of golf, a memorable one.

Zwartkop Country Club is one of the oldest and most prestigious clubs in the Pretoria area. The greatest names in golf have walked the fairways, from Sam Snead, Peter Thompson and Bobby Locke to Gary Player, Seve Ballesteros, Lee Trevino, Nick Faldo, Ernie Els, Nick Price and Retief Goosen. The club has hosted many significant professional events over the years, including the 1955 SA Open (the only one ever played in Pretoria), the ICL International, a regular tournament on the Sunshine Tour during the 80's and a memorable exhibition game between Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player during the 60's.

The club was founded in 1933 so it celebrated it's 80th Anniversary in 2013. The layout offers golfers the classic parkland challenge, with tree-lined fairways and the Hennops River, which meanders through the course.
