

SPECIAL FEATURE - CANON SA DISABLED GOLF OPEN

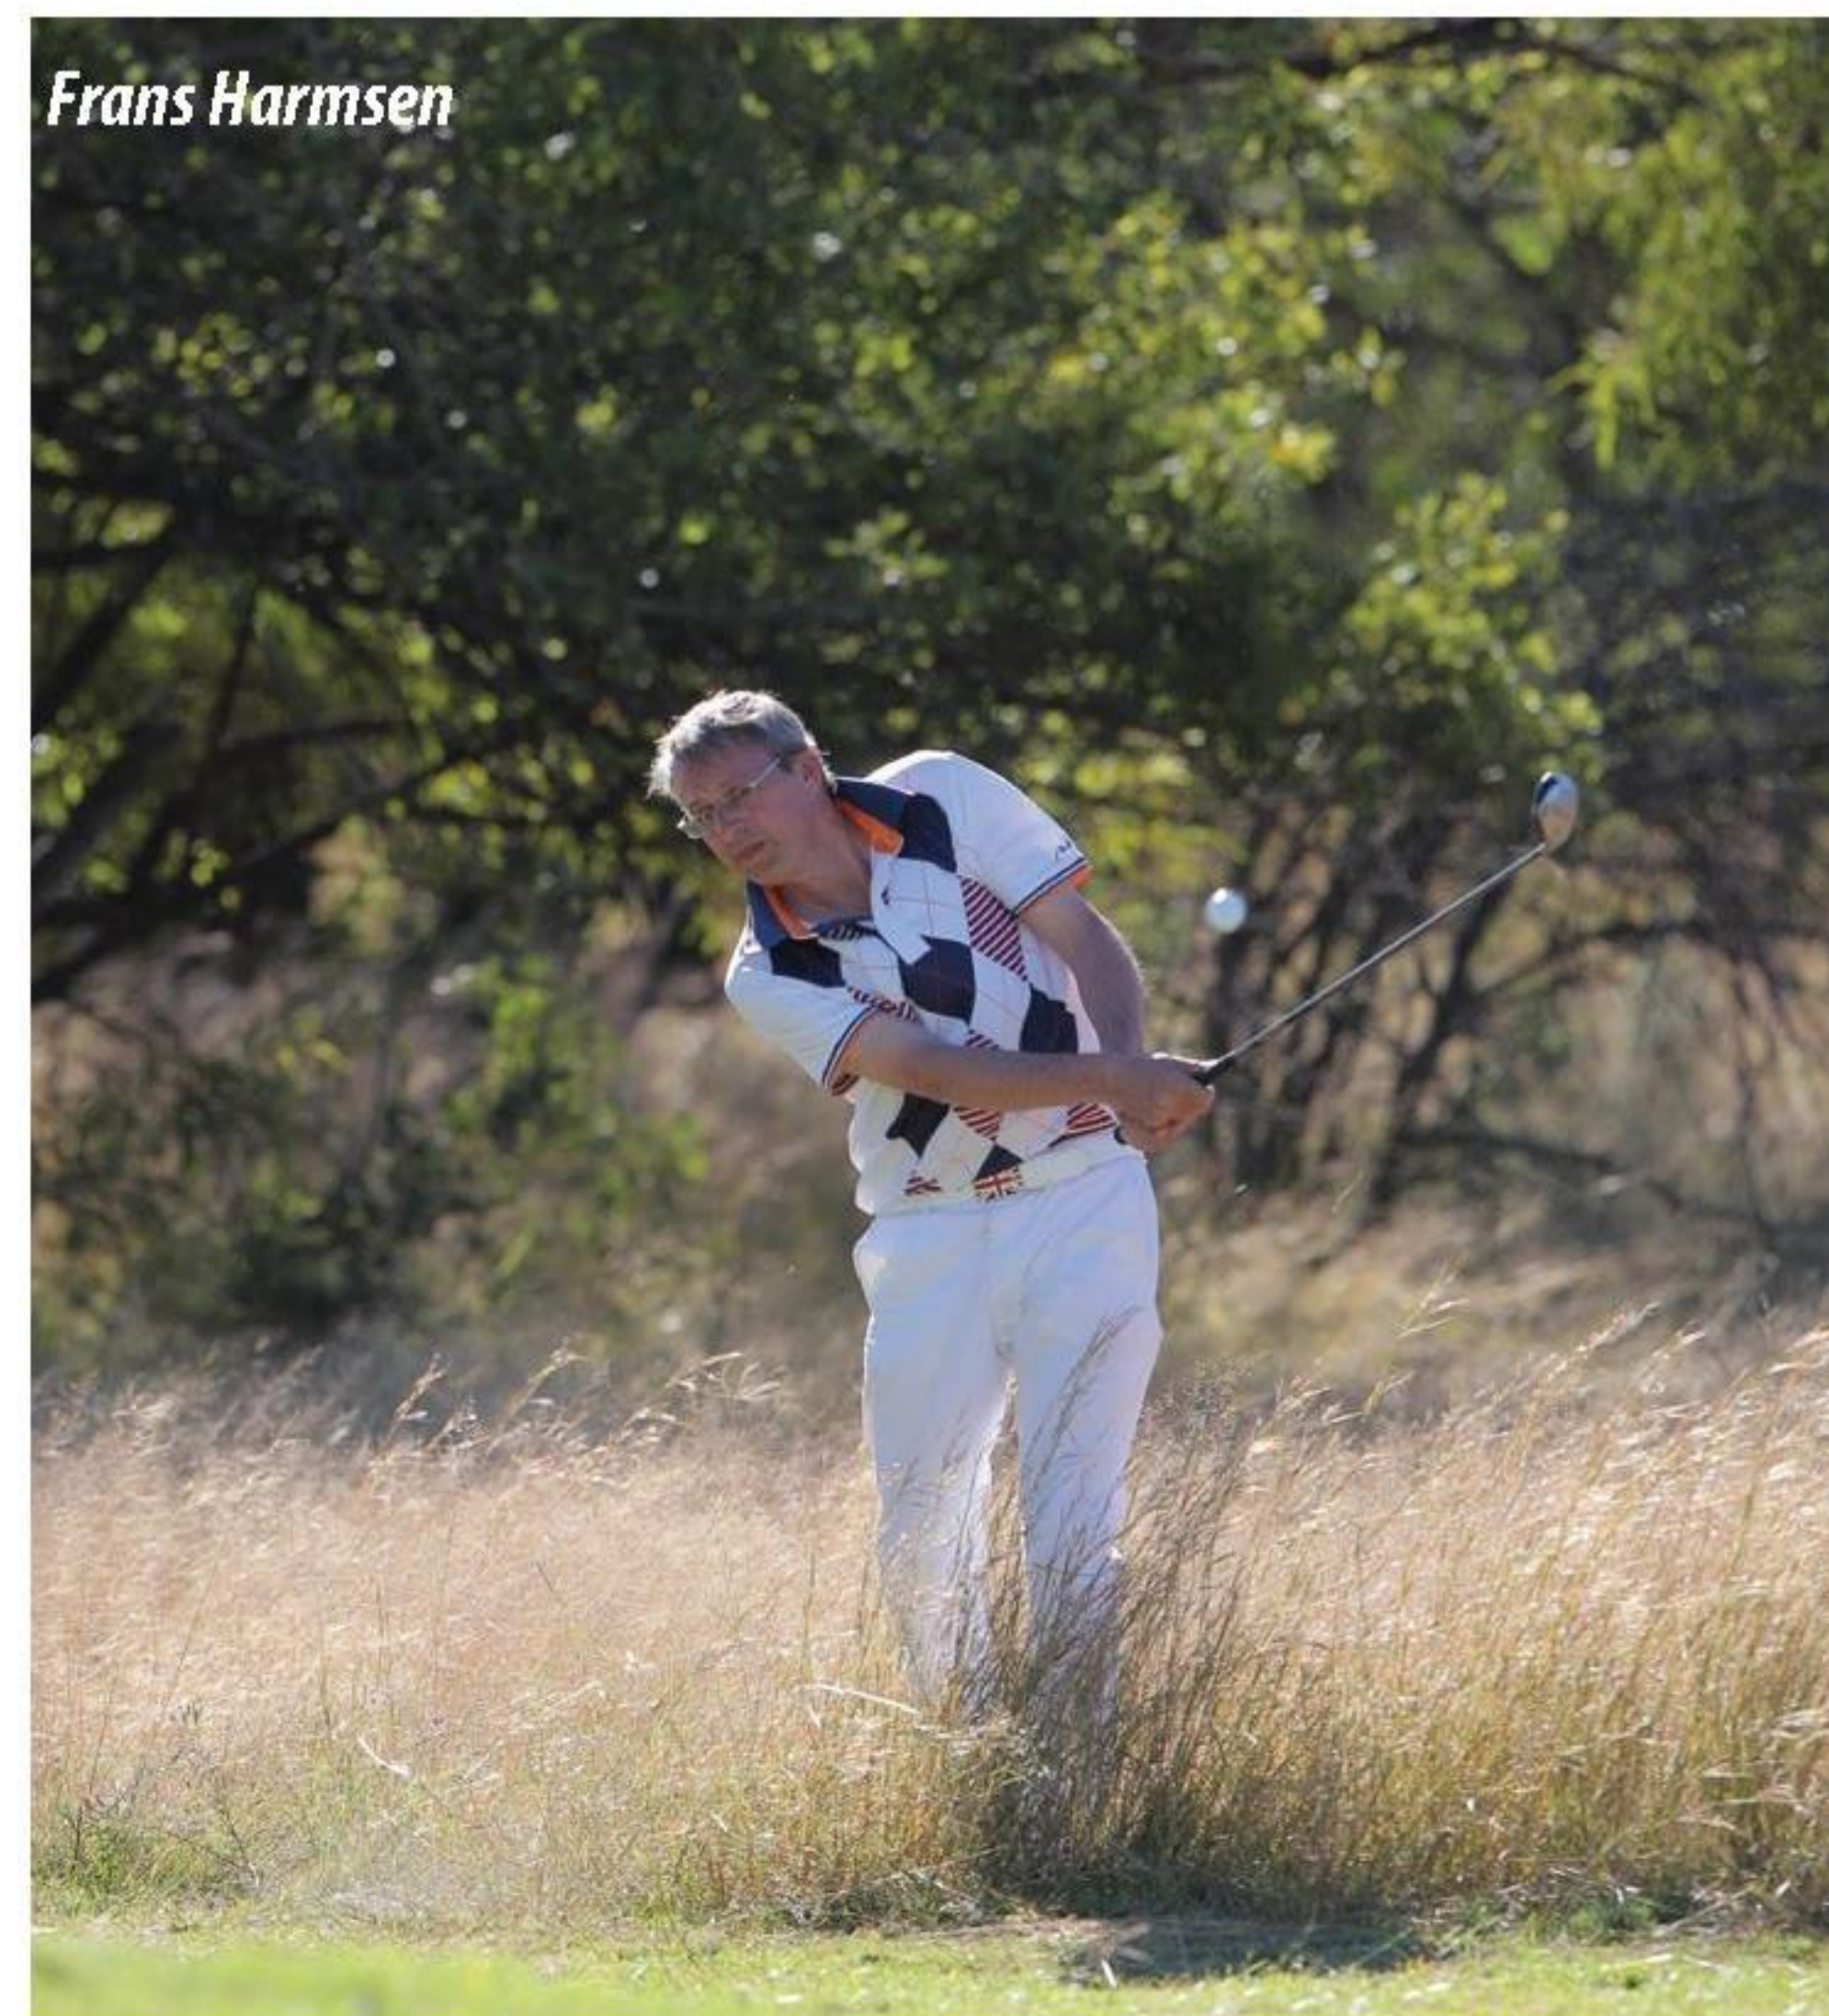

It's here – the 2018 Canon South Africa Disabled Golf Open

(Holland); Mike Brown (United Kingdom) and Hernan Garcia (Chile) amongst others.

There's less than a week to go until some of the world's top golfers with disabilities convene for the 2018 Canon South Africa Disabled Golf Open at Magalies Park Golf Club from 13 to 18 May. The annual event, celebrating its second decade this year, is organised by the South African Disabled Golf Association (SADGA) to offer a platform for disabled golfers to pit their skills against some of the best in the world.

"For 20 years, the Canon Disabled Golf Open inspired and united players with disabilities, and acknowledged their achievements. This year promises another inspiring showcase of incredible sportsmanship, talent, perseverance and passion," says Michelle Janse van Vuuren, Marketing Manager at Canon SA.

Amongst the South Africans playing in the tournament are Christo de Jager; Ben van Zyl, Daniel Slabbert – 3 times previous winner of this tournament - SADGA ambassador Reinard Schuhknecht and Igin Grobbelaar. Travelling to South Africa to compete are Tineke Loogman; Frans Harmsen and Leon Emmen. This material is not for sale or retransmission due to copyright.
